

Jiwoo Choi is a Korean Fine Artist who use colors to explore and express the feeling of loneliness and isolation as well as positive energy. She is currently pursuing Master of Fine Arts (MFA) degree at New York Academy of Art (NYAA) and due to complete her degree in 2023. And she earned Bachelor of Fine Art (BFA) from Columbus College of Art and Design (CCAD), where she has been awarded the President's List and selected for outstanding fine arts senior. Her work has been exhibited in Sean Christopher Gallery (Columbus, OH), Light Space & Time Online Art Gallery (Palm Springs, CA), Eastern Michigan University Galleries (Ypsilanti, MI). She taught students at Boa Snake Swallowed by an Elephant Art Academy and Grapevine Art Academy in Korea.